TOTAL CREDITS: 134

* Two semesters of the same language sequence are needed to fulfill requirement.

LITR 254 (ENGL 201) is required in order to fulfill both the Core: Social Consciousness #2 requirement and the literature requirement needed for certification.

(X) – Required for Associate degree at Bucks County Community College; however, does not fulfill a degree requirement in the B.A./Certification PreK-4 Education program at Holy Family University.

Note: A minimum of 60 credits must be earned at Holy Family University to be eligible for commencement honors.

Note: Course sequence progression is based on admission to Holy Family University for the Fall semester. Admitting in the Spring semester alters the program progression as outlined and will result in extending degree completion beyond the four semester sequence.

Additional Information for the School of Education:

A. Required Clearances for Field Experiences

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's School Code requires that students in teacher preparation programs have current background checks prior to entering a school building for the purpose of any field experience, classroom observation, practicum experience, and student teaching. Prior to beginning courses at any level, Holy Family University students must upload copies of the following documents to American Data Bank (<http://www.holyfamilycompliance.com>):

1. Tuberculosis (PPD) Test
2. Pennsylvania Child Abuse Clearance (Act 151)
3. Pennsylvania Criminal History Background Check (Act 34)
4. Federal Criminal History Record/Fingerprinting (Act 114)
5. Arrest/Conviction Report and Certification Form (Act 24)

Students are to retain the originals of all documents in their possession. Documents should be secured in a safe place where they can be easily retrieved when needed. Students should be prepared to produce any of the preceding documents at school or district sites when requested. Each document must be current and up-to-date in accordance with University guidelines. Maintaining current documents will require students to obtain and upload all clearances on a yearly basis.

For additional detailed information on obtaining clearances and submitting them to the Field Placement Office, please consult the Field Placement website, found within the School of Education link at www.HolyFamily.edu. Questions about Holy Family University field experiences and required clearances should be directed to the Field Placement Office (267-341-3363).

B. Teacher Preparation Program Admission Requirements

All current requirements for admission to the Professional Educator Programs at Holy Family University (including transfer students) are outlined in the University's Undergraduate Studies Catalog. Admission requirements are subject to change based on regulations issued by the Pennsylvania Department of Education and policies developed by the School of Education at Holy Family University.

Current admission requirements (as stated in the 2014 – 2015 Undergraduate Studies Catalog) include the following:

1. Completed a minimum of 48 semester credit hours of university-level coursework.
2. Proof of all current clearances listed above in Section A.
3. Fulfillment of the Basic Skills requirement as specified by the Pennsylvania Department of Education. Additional detailed information about Pennsylvania testing requirements is provided on the School of Education website at www.HolyFamily.edu.
4. A Cumulative GPA of at least 2.8. (Please note that a Cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 must be obtained by the completion of the program to qualify for Pennsylvania teacher certification.)
5. Completion of at least six semester credits in university-level Mathematics, with a minimum grade of C, and at least six semester credits in university-level English Composition and approved Literature, with a minimum grade of C.
6. Two recommendation letters from Higher Education faculty members. These letters may be provided by faculty members at BCCC.
