RIVER TOWN PORTRAITS

1973–1983

JANUARY 17–
MARCH 9, 2018

IN 1973, fresh from graduate school and the new chair of the art department at Bucks County Community College, Bruce Katsiff set out with his large-format camera to get to know his neighbors in Lumberville and Point Pleasant, PA. These carefully composed photographs reveal the intimate character of village life, and remain powerful today for their balance of emotion and technical precision.

Bruce Katsiff: River Town Portraits 1973–1983 is timed to coincide with a new monograph with essays by curator Liz K. Sheehan; Jeff Marshall, Director of the Heritage Conservancy; and an appreciation by Jo Katsiff.
