FACULTY RECOMMENDATION FORM
LLOYD E. PENLAND SCHOLARSHIP IN THE HUMANITIES
DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Student Name:____________________________________________

Faculty Name:_____________________________________________

BCCC course taught to student:________________________________

The student who has asked you to write this recommendation is eligible for the annual Penland Scholarship awarded by the Department of Language and Literature. Eligibility for this award requires the student to have completed 30 credits with a GPA of 3.25 and to have declared a major in Liberal Arts/Humanities. The student must have taken a course with you at some point in his/her college career; you should be familiar with the student and his/her work.

Here is the prompt for the essay each student who competes must write: Explain how an education in the Humanities enables a person to be a responsible and contributing member of society. Please comment briefly but specifically on the student’s performance in your course and on his/her ability to see the material studied in a larger, more humanistic context.

We appreciate your helping the Scholarship Committee to understand why the student is deserving of and would make good use of this financial award. When you have completed the recommendation on college letterhead, please sign and forward it directly to Alan Rubin, Department of Language and Literature, Penn 143; attach this form, please. The deadline for all recommendation and application materials is April 12, 2011.
