

It's hard to believe that we are at mid-term of the 2010 Fall Semester!

At this time, we'd like to call you attention to issues that face every college student today and ask that you take the time to review our policies and procedures relating to these issues.

STUDENT RIGHTS: Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

Visit <http://www.bucks.edu/about/ferpa/ferpapolicy.php> to review our policies as they relate to your rights to privacy.

EMAIL

Visit <http://www.bucks.edu/online/bucksmail/index.php> to access your student email. Remember to check your email daily since official communication from the College will be sent to your student email account.

STUDENT CONSUMERISM

Students will find important information located at <http://www.bucks.edu/about/student-consumer-information.php>. The site provides general institutional information, as well as information on student financial assistance; health and safety; graduation, job placement, and retention rates; voter registration; and other important student data, procedures, and consequences if you are found in violation of any of the programs listed on this page.

CAMPUS SECURITY AND SAFETY

Visit <http://www.bucks.edu/security>. This site contains the "Security Information Report" as well as information on emergency closings, safety alerts, and a daily security log.

CAMPUS EMERGENCIES

How will you know if there is an emergency situation at Bucks? Visit <http://www.bucks.edu/life/security/signup.php> to view Emergency Communication Instructions.

Take a few minutes to register for the e2Campus System at <http://www.e2campus.com/my/bucks/signup.htm>. This state-of-the art system is capable of sending notifications instantly and simultaneously to all registered mobile phones, Blackberry's, wireless PDAs, pagers, Smart or Satellite phones and email addresses. The service is free, but you have to sign up. Instructions for signing up are on the above-named site.

Best wishes for a successful semester!
