Young Artists Scholarship Competition 2010

For Piano and Voice

Bucks County Community College

Bucks County Community College is pleased to announce the 2010 annual “Young Artists Scholarship Competition” for piano and voice. The competition is open to high school seniors residing in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. A scholarship of $500 each will be awarded to one pianist and one vocalist, to be applied to their tuition for the Fall Semester 2010. The winners must become full-time Music Majors at Bucks County Community College to receive their scholarship.

Bucks County Community College is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM). Our world-class faculty is comprised of internationally renowned classical concert artists, jazz musicians and highly esteemed educators. Our students, after receiving a strong foundation in music theory and performance, successfully transition to professional careers in music and transfer to leading conservatories and Universities worldwide.

Each contestant will perform two compositions, from memory, in a live audition before a distinguished panel of college faculty.

Piano – a. One movement from a Mozart or Beethoven Sonata
       b. A Romantic or Contemporary work

Voice – a. An Art Song or Aria in Italian
       b. A Song in English from the Classical repertoire

The Competition will be held on the campus of the Bucks County Community College on Sunday, May 23, 2010 in the Music and Multimedia Center, Presser Room #001. You will be notified by E-mail of your audition time, two weeks before the competition.

Voice Students must include copies of their music with the application for the accompanist.

Application Deadline is Saturday, April 24.

For further information, please contact Edward Ferdinand, Competition Coordinator at 215-968-8486.
