

Look what's happening this Spring!

Educational Enrichment Programs

Shannon Cutts
singer, songwriter, author
Tuesday, February 9
12:30 pm / 5:30 pm
Gateway Auditorium,
Newtown

Shannon Cutts, singer/songwriter and survivor of anorexia and anxiety disorder will share her concert ministry through her presentation "Beauty Undressed", her own personal story of her struggles to overcome this disease. She will sign copies of her recently-published book Beating ANA: How to Outsmart Your Eating Disorder and Take Your Life Back.

"Mrs. Abraham Lincoln"

Tuesday, February 9
12:30 p.m.
Gallagher Room,
Newtown

Jo Ann Tufo will portray "The Eternal Wife: Mrs. Abraham Lincoln", as she reminisces about life with her husband of 22 years, Abraham Lincoln, and the bloody Civil War that tore country and family apart.

Underground Railroad

Tuesday, February 9 • 12:30 p.m.
Lower Bucks Campus
Wed., February 10 • 12:30 p.m.
Fireside Lounge, Newtown

Trish Chambers will present the history, legends and personal stories that make up the rich heritage connected to the Underground Railroad.

Melissa Cornick, award-winning independent journalist
Monday, February 15 • 12:00 p.m.
Penn 257, Newtown

Melissa Cornick, award-winning independent journalist whose experience includes 60 Minutes, Dateline, 20/20 and Nightline will share her experience of using personal ethics in news reporting and talk about the ethical dilemmas she confronted in her career.

Negro Baseball Leagues

Thursday, February 18
12:30 p.m., Fireside Lounge
7:00 p.m., Gateway Auditorium

Author and filmmaker Byron Motley, son of a Negro League umpire, presents the history, memories and personal stories of the Negro Baseball Leagues from his soon-to-be released documentary.

Women at the Turn of the Century

Tuesday, March 9 • 12:30 p.m.
Gallagher Room Newtown

This presentation by Trish Chambers discusses the advancement of women into the professions, arts and business, exploring how women took the initiative to drive social change.

Pray the Devil Back to Hell, screening

Thursday, March 10 • 12:30 p.m.
Fireside Lounge, Newtown

Screening of film Pray the Devil Back to Hell, a gripping documentary about a group of brave women who demanded peace for Liberia, a nation torn to shreds by a decades-old Civil War, followed by a facilitated discussion with Barbara Shaiman, author of Live Your Legacy: Ten Simple Steps to Find Your Passion and Change the World. Barbara is the founder of the non-profit organization, Champions of Caring, which provides young people with the skills they need to make responsible personal decisions and positive changes in their communities.

A Sense of Wonder: An Evening with Rachel Carson, screening

Thursday, March 25
7:00 p.m.
Gateway Auditorium,
Newtown

Screening of film A Sense of Wonder: An Evening with Rachel Carson, a documentary about Rachel Carson who became America's most successful advocate for the natural world with the publication of her book The Silent Spring. Actress Kaiulani Lee who portrays Rachel Carson in the film will be available after to answer questions and discuss the extensive research she did on the life and loves of Rachel Carson.

The New Metropolis, screening

Tuesday, April 6 • 12:30 p.m.
Fireside Lounge, Newtown

Screening of film The New Metropolis, a two-part documentary about America's "first" suburbs and the crisis these suburbs are now facing: dwindling tax bases, population and business loss, decaying infrastructures, increased racial tensions and white flight. A panel discussion will follow.

Bucks County
Community College

Newtown • Bristol • Perkasie • Bucks.edu

Events are FREE and open to all. Call 215-968-8015 or email kayen@bucks.edu or more information

10008