WHAT WE CAN DO

- help you understand concepts addressed in your computer course
- help you utilize your textbook, class notes, and homework assignments
- help you get started on a homework assignment
- help you prepare for a test
- help you find resources to further practice your computer skills
- help you understand your assignment
- help with lab assignments
- help you become comfortable with computer operating systems, utilities, and applications
- help you with specific computer courses (see the back for specific classes)

WHAT WE CAN’T DO

- be of much help if you come to the Center the day of your test
- do your homework for you
- be of any assistance with a take-home test
- take the place of going to class
- tutor for placement or standardized tests
